

Status:	Accepting Résumés
Company:	C-Innovation, LLC
Contact:	Ron Gross
Office:	(985) 612-1704
E-mail Résumés to:	jobs@c-innovation.com

Underwater robotics at 13,000 feet? Come fly with us!

www.c-innovation.com

Senior Pilot Technician

- Minimum 2.5 years of ROV operator experience is required.

Minimum Requirements

- High school graduate or equivalent/university or technical training/
- Formal ROV operator training
- Experience and skills in electronic/electrical/mechanical/hydraulics
- Holds a current valid offshore medical certificate
- Must pass pre-employment physical, drug screen and background check
- Subject to random drug screening throughout employment
- Shall be capable of passing HUET/BOSIET certifications
- Intermediate level training course in AC-DC systems, transformers and theory of operation
- Intermediate level training course in hydraulics
- Vendor supplied manipulator maintenance and repair seminar

Job Description

- This position is expected to maintain a professional appearance and disposition at all times and exhibit professional courtesy whenever dealing with co-workers and/or other persons involved with job project.
- Assist ROV Supervisor to determine field solutions and resolve project barriers.
- Adhere to all C-Innovation's policies and procedures.
- Foster a professional and safe work environment.
- Maintain, repair and troubleshoot ROV systems.
- Observe safe working practices and adhere to mechanical/electrical principles to industry standards.
- Work independently or as a member of a team.
- Carry out assigned administrative duties in a timely manner.
- Piloting, navigation and log keeping.
- Perform routine and preventative maintenance, troubleshoot and give input to field solutions.
- Establish priorities and accomplish objectives.

- Read and generate schematics, and perform other related duties as required.
- The Senior Pilot Tech should strive to learn new technical and operational issues everyday on the job.
- Foster the mentoring of ROV technician's in the field.
- The Senior Pilot Tech will report to the ROV Supervisor while on board the installation or report to the Operations Manager, Operations Coordinator and/or Personnel Logistics department while onshore.
- Be capable of launch and recovery of ROV system.
- Perform safe operating parameters for the handling system.
- Ensure that the ROV is checked before and after the dive in accordance with relevant pre and post dive check lists.
- Follow lock out, tag out procedures in accordance with C-Innovation policies.
- Perform system weekly and monthly maintenance.
- Maintain a clean and presentable workspace.
- Be adequate in experience of the work.
- Be adequate in understanding of the system to be worked on and practical experience of that class of system.
- Be understanding of the hazards that may arise during the work and the precautions which need to be taken.
- Have the ability to recognize at all times whether it is safe for work to continue.
- Understand and operate within the established company HSE policies and operating standards.
- Operate ROV system as directed by system supervisor/superintendent.
- Be familiar with all relevant task procedures, ensuring operations and data recording are carried out correctly.
- Carry out planned maintenance and repairs on ROV and associated equipment as required.
- Be willing to work offshore in harsh weather environments on a rotation or call-out basis.
- Repair, maintenance and operation of the ROV umbilical cable handling system (winch and hydraulic power unit).
- Repair, maintenance of the ROV hydraulic and mechanical systems.
- Maintain the mechanical spares shipboard inventory.
- Awareness of legislation/guidance, e.g. reporting accidents managing safety of team on night shifts.
- Commitment to safety by setting an example on safety issues and demonstrating safety leadership to subordinates and work colleagues.
- Communication of safety information to team members when needed.
- Effective use of company safety management system.
- Knowledge of emergency procedures.
- Management of team members during an emergency.
- Knowledge of the ROV team member's roles and responsibilities.
- Communicates effectively with other team members.
- Can identify hazards likely to arise during maintenance activity.
- Ability of supervising teams during shift if needed.
- Coordinate the upkeep of the ROV system planned maintenance schedules.
- Demonstrates ability of fault finding and general maintenance of ROV control and navigation systems.

- Capable of assessing weather conditions and operational parameters for safe ROV operations.
- Capable of navigating ROV to work site in most conditions.
- Capable of operating ROV while Supervisor is not present.
- Can perform all general manipulator duties.
- Can carry out electrical and mechanical umbilical terminations.
- Capable of undertaking trade specialist tasks.
- Ability to coordinate dive records, video logs and audio dubbing.
- Familiarity with correct use of company format for report writing.
- Proven writing skills.
- Capable of pro-active involvement with projected work scopes to meet client requirements.
- Thorough understanding of underwater operations and equipment.

Compensation

- We offer competitive pay, technical training, and a positive working culture.
- We offer onshore and offshore day rate pay structure.
- Travel expenses covered by employer.
- Comprehensive benefits package:
 - Health, Dental, Vision, Voluntary Life, Voluntary Long-Term disability, 401K and company paid Short-Term Disability.

C-Innovation is an Equal Opportunity Employer and promotes diversity in the workplace.

EOE/M/F/H/V